

OUTDOOR LIVING SALES TEAM MEMBER

YOU

You enjoy meeting new people and building new relationships. You are energetic, dynamic, and motivated, and you have a passion for the appointment of your surroundings. You'd as soon spend your time outdoors as in and pride yourself on the beauty of your living space. Whether it's furniture, accents, or plants, the objects in your life have a place and a purpose. You think a lot about just what that means, and you're excited to share that with others.

US

We like plants, people, and beautiful spaces. And now, 60 years later, we are one of the largest independent garden and home retailers in the Midwest. Committed to blurring the lines between the natural and the built—and just making things beautiful—we seek to inspire with both our product and its presentation. And we have fun doing it.

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR

- A belief in what we do here: cultivating the beautiful, the natural, and the authentic
- A passion for sales
- The passion to identify and pair each customer with an ideal outdoor living solution
- Able to create a sales order and analyze product inventory levels
- A positive, flexible, self-starting attitude
- Clear communication skills—both verbal and written
- Strong organizational, time-management, and multi-tasking skills

WHAT WE OFFER

- Great potential for personal and professional growth
- A fast-paced, friendly, and energetic work environment
- Regular interaction with beautiful spaces, product, and plants

READY TO APPLY?

Download a copy of our application, or stop in and complete one in person. Once that's done, either email it to careers@mulhalls.com, or drop it off at the store on 120th and Maple. And to guarantee a response, be sure to wow us with just why you want to join our team.